Bravest of the brave

THE first people to find the bodies of a Didcot family murdered in their home sparking an Oxfordshire-wide manhunt have been awarded for their courage at a police awards evening on Tuesday.

PC Jon Morley told the Guardian he would never forget the day on May 23 last year when entered the house

By Alex Ballinger

in Vicarage Road to find the bodies of six-year-old Derin Jordon, her mum Janet Jordon, 48, and her dad Philip Howard, 44.

He said: "There was a picture which I imagine the little girl had drawn. It was of somebody with a house.

"That will live long in my memory.

"I don't think I will ever forget it."

PC Morley arrived on the scene within seven minutes of the incident having being reported, alongside Sergeant Tim Pavey, and PCs Emma Birch, Ryan Churchley and Ben Pooley.

The five officers, all based at Didcot Police Station, received special commendations in front of friends and family for their work at a ceremony at Thames Valley Police's training centre in Sulhamstead near Reading.

PC Birch said: "I've been doing this for 11 years and I've never seen anything like it.

"I'd rather not have an award and have three people alive."

Adrian Leahy, a clinical mentor at South Central Ambulance Service, also received the award.

Council boss to step down this summer

By Loughlan Campbell

THE Chief Executive of South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) and Vale of White Horse District Council (VOWHDC) is to retire this summer, the Oxfordshire Guardian has learnt.

David Buckle, 59, is stepping down from his £135,000-a-year role after eight years of leading both councils and 16 years of leading SODC.

His departure will signal a restructuring of senior management at the jointly-led councils, according to SODC leader John Cotton and VOWHDC leader Matthew Barber.

Cllr Cotton told the Guardian: "We have been talking to David about it for a while now and he decided over Christmas that it was getting to the time where he wanted to step away from the role into retirement.

"The councils are in a solid place right now and he decided that now would be the better time to depart."

Cllr Cotton added that the councils are set to review their senior management structure in light of Mr Buckle's departure, but that a new Chief Executive would replace him this summer.

He said: "The structure of senior management at the councils will change soon as we're looking to thin out the levels."

The current structure has a chief executive heading the councils with two strategic directors working underneath him and then below them are seven heads of service for certain areas in the council such as in corporate strategy and planning.

Cllr Cotton praised Mr Buckle, saying: "He has been incredibly good in his role and of course we are very disappointed to see him go."

Cllr Barber said: "I'd say that everyone at the council is very grateful for all that David has done. He has led the council through some interesting times and has led the line well.

"It's a very interesting moment for the councils and there is now an opportunity to look at the council's development and move forward."

When questioned if an internal appointment would be made on the role, Cllr Barber added that 'it's too early to say' and that the council would be 'exploring all options, internally and externally before making an appointment.

The Guardian approached Mr Buckle for comment on his retirement, but he declined until a date is set for his departure.

Oxford hotel could expand after £47.2m deal

THE Malmaison Hotel in Oxford's Castle Quarter could be set to expand following a purchase of the historic site, according to Oxford City Council's leader Bob Price.

The quarter, formerly owned by The Trevor Osborne Property Group, was sold to Westgate developers the Westgate Oxford Alliance in a £47.2 million deal announced on Tuesday.

The Alliance, a joint venture between Land Securities and The Crown Estate, is currently working on the £440m development of the Westgate shopping centre, which is set to be completed in October next year.

Cllr Price said: "I think we can expect a change in the pattern of the way things have gone at the quarter with this deal.

"We have been very disappointed with the quarter's performance over the last five years. I think we can anticipate real change with this deal and see the Malmaison expand outwards."

The site, off Castle Street and New Road, houses nine restaurants, bars and pubs as well as the Malmaison hotel and Oxford Castle.

Jack Busby, portfolio director at Land Securities said: "We are delighted to have purchased this attractive and historic site so close to our Westgate Oxford development.

"We believe Oxford is an exciting and unique location. This latest acquisition is testament to our confidence in the city as an international hub for retail and heritage."

The head of regional portfolio at The Crown Estate, Hannah Milne, said: "The acquisition of Castle Quarter is a fantastic opporuntity to deepen our strategic partnership."

£60m Didcot Gateway gets officers' approval

DIDCOT: Plans for a £60 million redevelopment of Didcot Gateway have been recommended for approval by officers, with a decision on the proposal set to be made on Wednesday.

The South Oxfordshire District Council application was submitted to the council last June and includes 300 homes, a 70-bed hotel, a gym, café, restaurant and a pub.

It would also include a replacement office building for Soha Housing, a replacement building and grounds for Lydalls Nursery as well as a multi-storey car park next to the railway station.

The plans were first unveiled to the public last January in a consultation at the Cornerstone Arts Centre by the Orchard Centre and would see the Prince of Wales pub demolished as part of the plans.

A decision on the plans was originally set for October last year but it was held up due to 'technical queries' brought up by a consultation on the plans.

The application has also faced 29 letters of objection from local residents who voiced concern about the height of the buildings and loss of the Prince of Wales pub.

Officers have recommended approval of the application, stating: "The aim [of this application] is to comprehensively redevelop the area opposite Didcot Parkway station to create an attractive entrance that welcomes arrivals to the town."

A decision will be made by SODC's planning committee at a meeting at Didcot Civic Hall in Britwell Road, with proceedings getting underway from 6pm.

Care home fraud

WALLINGFORD: A 42-year-old woman has been charged in connection with fraud at a care home.

Bank cards of elderly residents were used to fraudulently buy clothes and food online.

Michelle Brandish, of Beeching Way, Wallingford, was charged on Monday with one count of fraud by abuse of position.

She was arrested on October 2 last year and is due to appear at Oxford Magistrates' Court on March 8.

The offences took place against four victims between March 1 and October 2 2015.

Designs unveiled for new Didcot primary school

By Loughlan Campbell

DESIGNS for Didcot's new primary school in Great Western Park housing estate have been unveiled ahead of the school's opening in September.

The first ground was broken to start building Didcot Primary Academy in October last year, and steel frames went up in late December.

The school will have 15 classrooms, a large dining-come-gymnastics hall, and playing fields.

A football pitch is expected to be finished this August, in time for pupils to attend classes from early September.

The publicly-funded academy will open with 52 spaces in the nursery for three and four-year-olds, 30 places for reception children, 15 for year 1 pupils and 15 for year 2 youngsters.

It will start with six teachers and three teaching assistants, and will take on extra pupils each year until the school's expected capacity of 420 youngsters by 2025.

The academy will be run by the education charity GEMS Learning Trust.

Jodie Croft, chief executive of the trust said: "We have had a lot of demand from eager parents over the last few months to see if they can get their children into our new school.

"We hope the community gets on board with these designs as we think they are lovely and showcase the vision of what we want the school to look like.

"It's going to be a fabulous place for learning."

Each classroom in the school will have it's own colour palette with the nursery room and the reception room's to be interjoined.

Current headteacher of Sutton Courtenay Church of England Primary School, Alison Ashcroft has been appointed the academy's first headteacher.

She is due to start in the role this summer.

Nick Hards, Oxfordshire county councillor for Didcot, said: "It's a good quality design of school and I hope it goes up fast as we really need this school on the estate."

The school will have just over 30 parking spaces. But Cllr Hards believes warned this will not be enough as the school grows.

He added: "There won't be an obvious problem at the start when the intake isn't that high but these kinds of issues have to be addressed now before it becomes a bigger problem down the line."

Applications for the school closed on January 15.

• Janet Jordon

• From front page

He was the first person from the ambulance service to arrive at the house.

Mr Leahy said: "If any positives can be taken away from what was a truly tragic event, it's that I feel reassured that if I were to experience anything similar again, our brothers and sisters in the emergency services will be there to support each other."

The horrifying discovery sparked a manhunt across Didcot and in Oxford for Ms Jordon's son Jed Allen, the key murder suspect.

Allen, 21, killed his mum, her partner Mr Howard, and his half-sister Derin before fleeing down Broadway and catching a train to Oxford. He hung himself in a field near Marston Ferry Road the same day.

An inquest held in November last year found the three victims died from multiple stab wounds, while Allen's cause of death was ruled as suicide.

Presenting the awards, Thames Valley Police Chief Constable Francis Habgood said: "It is my absolute honour and privilege to present these commendations in recognition of the professional, skills, bravery and exemplary actions of those involved. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all the recipients. They deserve to feel extremely proud."

Sgt Pavey was also commended for his excellent leadership at the scene. He said: "The 23rd of May 2015 will live long in the memory, not just because of the tragic events that occurred that day, but also because of the bravery professionalism, teamwork and dedication displayed by the officers that first attended that horrific scene."

Town clean-up for the Queen

DIDCOT: Residents are being asked to help the town council clean up Didcot for the Queen's 90th birthday, being celebrated in June.

The campaign, called 'Clean for the Queen' takes place on March 5 between 10am and 1pm.

The council is asking residents to tell them of 'grot spots' in the town that needs special cleaning through kfiander@didcot.gov.uk

Correction

DIDCOT: In an article published in last week's Guardian titled 'Council tax hike plan dropped', we stated that Didcot town councillor Neville Harris was a Labour councillor.

We would like to clarify that Cllr Harris is in fact an Independent town councillor.

Station closure

DIDCOT: Didcot Railway Station will be closed to rail services for the next six Sundays to allow work on the electrification of the railway network be carried out.

No trains will visit the station this Sunday (February 7) and every Sunday until March 27.

Rob Mullen, GWR general manager central, said: "This work helps move us closer to the benefits of electrification."

University to mark its first LGBT month

THIS year marks the first time Oxford Brookes University will celebrate lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) history with a range of events throughout February.

LGBT History Month takes place annually in February and the university will mark the occasion with lectures, film screenings and discussions.

The events have been organised by Oxford Brookes, Brookes Union, University of Oxford and local community groups.

Pro Vice Chancellor at the university, Professor Anne-Marie Kilday, said: "At Oxford Brookes we are committed to ensuring the very best experiences for our students and our staff.

"Our community can flourish in a culture of respect and inclusion. "[LGBT History Month] helps shape future initiatives."

Police arrest eight after United game

By Alex Ballinger

EIGHT people have been arrested and a police horse was injured in connection with a football match between Oxford United and Millwall FC on Tuesday night.

Police dealt with 'serious violence', possession of an offensive weapon and drug offences over the course of the day.

Odin, from the Thames Valley Police mounted section suffered a three-inch cut to his back leg.

Local police area commander for Oxford, Christian Bunt, said: "Unfortunately we had a sizeable number of people who assoiate themselves with Millwall and Oxford football clubs who had clearly come to the game only to cause trouble.

"It is a great shame that these individuals ruin football events for genuine supporters who attended the match peacefully.

"It is also disappointing that this disorder has disrupted the wider Oxford public."

Superintendant Bunt added: "We were forced to deal with a number of disorderly incidents which included serious violence.

"This kind of behaviour is not acceptable and will be dealt with robustly."

He added that a post-match investigation had been launched and a number of arrests are expected in the coming weeks.

Head of the mounted section, Sergeant Spencer Kervin, said: "I am very disappointed in the behaviour towards one of the horses.

"Officers on horses have a job to do and I don't expect them to come under attack from bottles and stones as a result of them trying to keep the peace."

Volunteers work to clean up town

BICESTER: Council workers and volunteers cleared almost 15-tonnes of rubbish from a Bicester estate last month.

Over a week, 30 hours were spent clearing litter, fly-tipping and cleaning graffiti at the Kings End estate.

Among the tonnes of items found were a goldfish bowl, a mattress with an egg on top, a traffic cone and underwear.

Cllr Debbie Pickford, Cherwell's lead member for clean and green, said: "Although some of this rubbish was accidental, such as litter blowing from bins, the majority was the result of a deliberate act by people showing a blatant disregard for the environment."

Farm house fire

Firefighters were called to the large farm house at 10.17pm and arrived to find a heavily smoke logged basement.

An incoming electrical supply had failed which set fire to the fuse board and surrounding wooden beams, which caused the blaze.

The fire crews used specialist equipment quickly extinguished the fire and no one was injured.

Didcot firm fined for letting employees sleep on premises

• Cllr Rodney Rose

By Loughlan Campbell

A DIDCOT firm has been fined £9,000 after it was found to have let employees sleep and work in dangerous factory conditions.

Business World Globe Ltd, based in Hitchcock Way, and its director Mohammed Osman were together ordered to pay just over £14,000 on Monday after they admitted to seven charges at a hearing at Oxford Magistrates Court in Speedwell Street.

Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service issued a prohibition notice on the site, restricting the use of the premises after an inspection from their fire safety inspectors in June 2015 found dangerous practices and inadequate safety measures.

The charges included a failure to risk assess and take fire precautions to ensure the premises were safe for employees, ensure that emergency exits were clear, failure to provide an adequate fire alarm and detection system and providing employees with adequate safety training.

Cllr Rodney Rose, deputy leader of the county council said: "The penalties imposed on this company show how seriously fire safety arrangements are viewed.

"It is just not acceptable to put people's lives at risk and these prosecutions will hopefully act as a deterrent to others who think they can ignore what are essential safety measures."

In total, the charges amounted to a £9,000 fine with the firm ordered to pay costs of £5,000, plus a victim surcharge of £126.

The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 places a requirement upon the responsible person, usually the building occupier, operator or owner to undertake a fire risk assessment.

Stuart Garner, premises risk and protection manager for the fire service, said: "By correctly managing their premises and not committing fire safety offences, business operators can avoid placing the occupants at risk of possible death or serious injury ."

Men sought after robbery in Kidlington

A WALLET was stolen in a robbery and two women were threatened in a separate attempted robbery last weekend.

At around 6.30pm on Friday a young man got off the 2A bus from Oxford at Evans Lane and was followed by two men in Croft Avenue where they stole his wallet.

One wore a grey hoodie and dark trousers and the other wore a black hoodie and grey trousers.

In a second incident at around 10.50am on Sunday two young women were followed by two men after they got off the bus from Oxford to Kidlington near Beech Crescent, Elm Grove.

The offenders were both skinny, wearing grey hoodies and one wore a bobble hat.

Investigating officer PC Sharon Harris said: "I would like to locate any witnesses to these incidents, or anyone who may have seen the offenders in the area."

Anyone with information is asked to call Thames Valley Police on 101.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Councillors set to discuss controversial Tesco plans

By Jayne Smith

THAME councillors will once again discuss controversial plans to build an out-of-town supermarket.

Last May, Tesco submitted plans to build a new store with parking and redevelop Kingsmead Business Park, in Howland Road, Thame.

The plans have had a mixed reaction from residents.

Letters have been received from supporters of the supermarket who say it would "bring many benefits to the town" including more retail choice, improved cycle and pedestrian links and new jobs.

While others "strongly object" on the grounds it would have a detrimental impact on the town centre.

In a letter objecting to the plans town councillor Mike Dyer said: "I would submit that the Tesco application is in contravention of the Neighbourhood Plan, is of a scale that is grossly disproportionate to Thame's identified retail needs, and would have an impact that could potentially rip the heart out of our market town."

The site is also home to businesses including DAF, which employs about 100 people. DAF is proposed to be relocated to new offices within the site.

Suzanne Malcolm, South Oxfordshire District Council's economic development manager, pointed out the site was home to a number of "significant businesses" and it was important any development did not hinder those businesses.

She also said there were more benefits from town centre based supermarkets and these were "significant factors that should not be disregarded when determining this application".

A report prepared on behalf of Tesco said: "Permission is sought for redevelopment of the site for beneficial uses which will enhance the sustainability of Thame, both in terms of future employment provision and the provision of suitable convenience retail facilities.

"Both are sharpened by the immediate growth of the town and the need for commensurate levels of local employment and day to day facilities to support a growing population."

Town councillors have since been asked to re-look at the proposals after more "retail related" information about the town was supplied.

In December the town council criticised a report produced for the application saying it had not considered independent traders in Thame.

South Oxfordshire District Council said the planning application is due to be discussed next month.

Care criticism is rebuffed

OXFORDSHIRE'S social care boss rejected criticism from public service union UNISON over 15-minute care in Oxfordshire.

The union listed Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) among those that commission short home visits for elderly, ill and disabled people in a report on Friday.

But OCC's cabinet member for adult social care, Judith Heathcoat, said they have not commissioned 15-minute care visits since 2014, unless requested by a patient.

Oxford football stars surprise school kids

TWO Oxford United stars were on hand to give youngsters at Cholsey Primary School a big surprise in a special visit to the school.

Players Joe Skarz, John Lundstram and club mascot Olly the Ox were at the school in Church Road to hand out 56 tickets to Oxford's FA Cup match with Blackburn Rovers at the Kassam Stadium on Saturday after a competition.

The competition, run with Benson-based Oxford United sponsor Grundon Waste Management, saw the school kids asked to design a poster to write about waste and recycling.

Grundon received 250 entries from the school for the competition; with the lucky winners getting the chance to attend the game and a handful of winning entries were also displayed at the stadium's family area during and after the match.

Headteacher Heather Haigh said: "The pupils have been so excited about meeting their footballing heroes and are thrilled at being invited as VIP guests to such an important match.

"They've really engaged with the recycling theme and the prospect of going to watch Oxford United has really captured the children's imagination and inspired them."

Darryl Eales, chairman of Oxford United said: "We go to great lengths to reach out to our fans of the future and what better way to do so than by supporting such a great initiative."

A34 Starbucks

BICESTER: Starbucks has confirmed its new coffee shop at the site of a former Eat and Go restaurant, off the A34, near Weston-on-the-Green, will open on February 15.

Charity snooker

THAME: People are being invited to take part in the mayor's annual snooker competition and raise cash for two charities.

The contest for all ages takes place at Thame Snooker Club, St Andrew's Court, on Monday, February 22, from 7pm.

Entry costs £5 and proceeds will be split between Thame & District Day Centre and Thame to Thame Earthquake Fund.

Thame has the same name as a place in Nepal badly hit by the 2015 earthquake.

Half-term fun

OXON: Two nature reserves are hosting half-term activities for families to get closer to wildlife.

On Saturday, February 13, visitors to Meadow Farm nature reserve, near Bicester, can take part in pond dipping to see what lives under the water. The following Friday, February 19, the day is all about birds.

Sutton Courtenay Environmental Education Centre, near Didcot, is hosting a range of activities from February 16 to 18.

Campaigners appeal to protect wildlife meadow

By Jayne Smith

WILDLIFE campaigners are urging people to sign a petition to stop development on a meadow in Bicester.

They want land off Gavray Drive, known as Gavray Meadows, to be designated a local green space.

Campaign group the Save Gavray Meadows Campaign say any development will destroy "rare" wildlife.

So far, more than 160 people have signed the online petition, but campaigners say they need more to add their signatures.

• Call for green space to be saved from developers

Dr Pam Roberts, of the group, said: "We have had a paper petition with 1,480 signatures which we submitted to the local plan hearing, so the planning inspector knew 1,480 people wanted to save the local wildlife."

The land is separated by a Langford Brook – but campaigners say in order to protect the wildlife no development should take place east of the brook.

It is home to rare butterflies such as the black hairstreak and the grizzled skipper, and rare devil's-bit scabious plants.

Dr Roberts said: "Any houses east of the brook will impact so dramatically on the nature conservation area and wildlife won't survive that, it needs space.

"This petition is to remind Cherwell the public really care about what's going to happen to this area and we support Cherwell in any dispute with developers."

The petition, which is submitted to Cherwell District Council, said: "We the undersigned petition the council to stop all planned development on Gavray Meadows, on the land east of Langford Brook and bounded to the north by the London railway and to the south by Gavray Drive.

"It is home to many different species, some rare and all of value to our appreciation of the countryside which is fast vanishing around Bicester."

The deadline to sign the petition has been extended to February 29 due to technical problems.

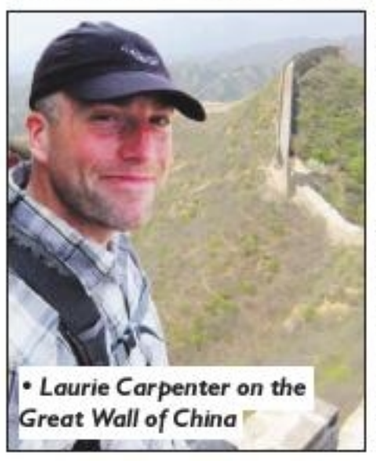
People can log onto e-petitions on Cherwell District Council's website or email democracy@cherwellandsouthnorthants.gov.uk with full name details.

Trekker bids to climb Mount Kilimanjaro

A DIDCOT trekker flew out to Africa last night to scale the 5,895m summit of Mount Kilimanjaro in Tanzania.

Laurie Carpenter, 36, the director at Coronet Bingo in Broadway, is attempting the six-day journey in aid of charity Responsible Gambling Trust.

Mr Carpenter, who lives off Hayden Road, said: "I'm extremely excited but apprehensive about it, it's going to emotionally draining as well as physically exhausting.



• Laurie Carpenter on the Great Wall of China

"In preparation of getting to the summit I've been swimming more as I'm trying to expand my lungs so it's not such a shock to the system at the top."

He will be part of a team of 31 trekkers bidding to reach the summit and raise £70,000 for the national charity.

It helps gamblers suffering with addiction, depression and alcohol abuse through counselling and offering places to stay.

Mr Carpenter has hiked long-distances including 800km across Spain last year, the famous Inca Trail to Machu Picchu in Peru and the Great Wall of China.

He jetted out to Nairobi overnight last night and will fly to Tanzania today before starting to scale the dormant volcano at 8am tomorrow.

He raised £355 of his £2,000 individual target so far. To donate go to mydonate.bt.com/fundraisers/coronetbingo

February update from your Independent MEP for the South East
Janice Atkinson

Last week I travelled to Strasbourg for one of the twelve visits we MEPs make to vote in the European Parliament. MEPs have voted to abandon this travelling circus which costs £130m per annum but it is blocked by the French.

In last week's plenary we discussed the migrant crisis - (it's on the agenda again) - it's on the agenda every month. The unelected Commission has decided that EU states will have compulsory migrant quotas imposed upon them. A German minister helpfully suggested that we impose a fuel levy to fund this issue. This is in addition to the €3bn paid to Turkey to stem the migrant flow (with no limit). Turkey also demanded (bribed) that work visas should be waived and talks accelerated for Turkey's membership of the EU. Yet still the migrants come.

MEPs agreed that external borders should be strengthened. Some EU states are well ahead of this, ie Hungary, but they face 'sanctions for inhumane actions'. You cannot win.

This month, three of the political groups asked that the sex attacks on women and school children across European cities and the media cover-ups be on the agenda. The Germans blocked the move. I spoke about it anyway.

I have visited Calais on a number of occasions and highlighted in Parliament that the majority of illigal immigrants in the camps are fit young men who are economic migrants, not refugees. Those that are genuine refugees should be returned to camps in the Middle East and north Africa to stay in their countries in safe havens and fight for their freedoms too.

We travel back to Strasbourg in early February. Again, we will discuss the crisis, much will be proposed, more British taxpayers' money will be spent but nothing done because of the inability of Parliament to recognise that the nation states and voters' views are very different to the bureaucrats' vision.

Rose Hill's new community centre unveiled to residents

• Oxford City Council leader Bob Price (right) and centre manager David Hunt (left)

• Artwork on the walls of the centre

A NEW £4.76 million community centre in Rose Hill was officially opened in a special ceremony on Saturday.

The 25-room building in Ashhurst Way includes a 30-station gym, meeting and conference rooms, a social club, youth base, library, police hub, advice centre with three rooms and ballroom.

Lord Mayor of Oxford, Rae Humberstone cut the ribbon three months after the last brick was laid to finish building work on October 9.

New centre manager David Hunt, 31, from Didcot, said: "We hope that the centre will act as a blueprint for community centres in the city as we think it offers everything that local residents are looking for, whether they fancy a drink or want to bulk up in the gym.

"I think the people of Rose Hill are going to be very happy with it and I hope it'll become their second home."

It will be the new home of Rose Hill and Donnington Advice Centre, Rose Hill Junior Youth Club, and Rose Hill Social Club.

The old community centre in The Oval and current advice centre in Ashurst Way are to be demolished to make way for homes.

By Loughlan Campbell

The centre's social club run by the Rose Hill Community Association has a bar area, ballroom, and a games room with a pool table and darts board.

The building also has 190 solar panels on the roof to generate 57,000kWh of electricity a year.

Oxford City Council leader Bob Price said: "It's a wonderful building and much bigger than I thought it was going to be, with so much space available for activities here.

"I'm delighted that the centre will be used by so many clubs and that's one of the most important things about centres like these as they're crucial in terms of helping young people in Oxford."

Lizzie Carline, 29, from Cowley, is part of Rose Hill Lottery Group that will run youth club activities. She added: "We want everybody to come down and get involved, especially the young people who will have the chance to take part in so many activities here."

• The 30-station gym

• The new building

Rose Hill community worker Fran Gardner said: "We have moved some of our project work into the new centre and immediately the impact has been enormous. The children attending the youth club are so excited at the space, the facilities, and the freedom that the building offers."

Hundreds sign petition against cuts to HIV aid

By Alex Ballinger

MORE than 600 people have signed up to oppose planned £150,000 council cuts eradicating funds given to a charity supporting HIV victims in Oxfordshire.

Cowley-based charity the Terrence Higgins Trust launched a petition in November last year in a bid to persuade Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) to reverse proposed cuts to its programme, The Community HIV Prevention and Support service.

The charity helped about 500 people living with or at risk of HIV in Oxford last year.

The trust's regional manager, Sue Peters, said: "Rates of HIV are increasing, stigma is as apparent as ever, yet 2015 saw the start of a worrying trend of local authorities across the country scrapping HIV services.

"In Oxfordshire, in David Cameron's back yard, the local council are set to scrap all HIV support services, with as yet no alternative service made available. The users of our services, many vulnerable individuals, are not aware of where and how they will be able to access support services after this date."

The trust's Oxford service has been running for 16 years.

It gives face to face support, long term condition management for people living with HIV, and advice on safe sex.

But that programme could close in April, after the council announced last year they would not be renewing their £150,000 contract with the trust.

OCC is making £292 million in cuts from 2010 to 2018 and another £69m from 2016 to 2020 due to Government cuts.

OCC leader Ian Hudspeth, said: "Our priority is services for the most vulnerable – children at risk of abuse and neglect and adults in care who need help with washing, dressing, eating and other personal care."

The council suggested HIV support could be integrated into its Adult Social Care Services.

An online petition called 'Oxfordshire County Council's cuts to HIV prevention and support services' on change.org has 697 supporters.

A full council vote on OCC's budget for 2016 to 2017, encompassing the cuts, is to be held at County Hall in New Road, Oxford, on February 16.

Sports award nominations open

A GYMNASTICS coach is calling on people to nominate West Oxfordshire's sporting stars for the 2016 West Oxfordshire Sports Awards.

Residents have until February 20 to elect their top athletes and coaches.

Debra Courtenay-Crane won 'coach of the year' at last year's ceremony after running Carterton Gymnastics Club for 25 years.

She said: "As a volunteer, to be recognised like that was phenomenal and I felt very proud.

• Debra Courtenay-Crane

"People should apply as they may not realise how much they are doing for their communities."

The gymnastics club, based at Carterton Community College in Upavon Way, also took home the 'sports club of the year' award at the 2015 ceremony in March at Witney Lakes Resort.

Athletes can also apply for grants until February 20 to help with training costs.

Go to www.westoxon.gov.uk/leisure to nominate or apply.

Rhodes will not fall, says college

A CONTROVERSIAL statue of a British colonist is set to stay at an Oxford University college in spite of heated pressure to have it removed.

The statue of Cecil Rhodes, on the front of Oriel College, will remain, the college announced last Thursday after 'careful consideration' and 'intense debate'.

Student movement Rhodes Must Fall says the 19th Century politician and businessman, credited with founding the modern diamond industry in South Africa, is an icon of white supremacy. They gathered 2,000 signatures in an online petition to bring down the monument.

By Loughlan Campbell

• The Cecil Rhodes statue in Oriel College in High Street, Oxford

A spokesperson for the college said: "Following careful consideration, the college's governing body has decided the statue should remain in place, and that the college will seek to provide a clear historical context to explain why it is there.

"The college believes the recent debate had underlined that the continuing presence of these historical artefact is an important reminder of the complexity of history and of the legacies of colonialism still felt today."

Rhodes Must Fall issued a statement which said: "This recent move is outrageous, dishonest and cynical. This is not over. We will be redoubling our efforts. The struggle continues!"

The college also denied reports that it had been scared into the decision after donors threatened to withdraw more than £100m if the statue was toppled.

It added: "Reports that the college is preparing to make redundancies and is facing an operating loss are categorically not true."

The college had announced last month it would begin a six-month 'listening exercise' to decide whether or not to remove the statue.

Former Oxford and Oriel student Rhodes was the prime minister of the British Empire's Cape Colony, made his fortune in South Africa's Kimberley diamond mines in the late 1800s. He left money to the college on his death in 1902 and the college set up a scholarship programme in his name which has been awarded to over 8,000 overseas students.

Designs revealed for college's £10m makeover

DESIGNS for a £10 million riverside extension to an Oxford University college have been unveiled.

St Hilda's college published five sets of designs last Thursday by architects vying to win a project to redevelop the college in Cowley Place off The Plain roundabout, which runs along the River Cherwell.

The scheme, celebrating the college's 125th anniversary in 2018, will create a new front-of-house for the college and increase the number of student flats, new teaching rooms, a common room and porter's lodge.

St Hilda's college principal, Professor Sir Gordon Duff, said: "We are keenly aware of the legacy we give to future generations as well as the opportunity to enhance Oxford itself."

A public exhibition of the plans is running at the college until next Friday.

The college will now review and debate the designs by 6a architects, DRDH Architects, Gort Scott, Hall McKnight, Tim Ronalds Architects. A winner is expected to be announced in late March.

Competition organiser, Malcolm Reading, said: "Each takes a different approach in celebrating the new gateway to the riverside site."

To see a full collection of the designs go to oxfordshireguardian.co.uk

'Inadequate' Oxford primary school criticised by inspector

By Alex Ballinger

AN Oxford primary school has been slammed by Ofsted in every area including health and safety and effectiveness of leadership.

Rose Hill Primary School in The Oval, Rose Hill, was heavily criticised in the report published last Thursday and ruled 'inadequate' in all five areas; effectiveness of leadership, quality of teaching, personal development, outcomes for pupils and early years provision.

The report states attendance is low, with some pupils having high rates of absence.

It adds: "School safeguarding procedures are not implemented rigorously. A visitor during the inspection gained access to the school without challenge."

The school has 415 pupils aged three to 11 and was inspected on November 17 and 18 last year by Ofsted inspectors Hilary Goddard and Debra Anderson.

Rose Hill Primary School's headteacher, Sue Vermes, said she complained to Ofsted about the inspection, but said the inspectors did not accept her concerns.

She said: "We weren't happy with the way the inspection was carried out. We were told the inspection would be advisory, but it was very judgemental.

"We're not trying to make excuses. We're not arguing against the school being inadequate, but there is some good teaching. Parents have said they don't feel the report reflects what they're seeing."

Oxfordshire County Council cabinet member for education, Melinda Tilley, said: "It's very sad and we need to make sure they pull themselves up again.

"It's usually a combination of things, not just one thing. They've had a trouble keeping teachers there. Their new headteacher has one been there a short time so it hasn't given her a chance to do anything.

"We need to be positive in trying to help them improve."

The report said school governors had not done enough to keep children safe with training, such as from the dangers of extremism and radicalisation.

It continued: "Standards have declined significantly over the last 18 months and rapidly since the previous inspection in June 2015. Pupils make slow progress in reading, writing and mathematics."

The school is to be inspected again in three to six months.

Opening date is set for Bicester Library's move

A DATE has been set for the opening of Bicester's new library.

Its doors will open on Monday, April 11, in Franklins House, the new community building in Pioneer Square, being constructed by Cherwell District Council.

The community building, which will also house the district council's office, offices, retail units and a Travelodge hotel, will complete the £70 million town centre regeneration scheme.

The council said the new library is larger than the current facility in Old Place Yard, and will offer more books, CDs and DVDs and will have more public access computers.

• Layout of the new, bigger, Bicester library

There will also be Wifi to provide opportunities for people to develop their digital skills, as well as weekly rhyme-time sessions for babies, family learning activities and reading groups.

Oxfordshire County Council's cabinet member for cultural and community services Lorraine Lindsay-Gale said: "I am looking forward to seeing this fresh, modern, new library with its improved facilities becoming a focal point for a town that is growing but at the same time retaining its own distinctive character as an Oxfordshire town."

Bicester Local History Society and National Careers Service will have their own dedicated areas and there will be a weekly job club.

The current library will close its doors at 4.30pm on Saturday, March 19, giving staff three weeks to move books to the its new home.

Village homes approved amidst school place fear

By Alex Ballinger

A TOTAL of 44 new homes are set to be built in Steventon, near Didcot, after planning permission was granted on Wednesday despite fears from the parish council and local residents over school places.

Vale of White Horse District Council approved the application for land off Hanney Road at a planning committee meeting last Wednesday.

The plans were called 'over-development' and 'disproportionate' by Steventon Parish Council.

A total of 18 letters of objection were sent to the council by residents who argued the approval will lead to more development in the village between Wantage and Didcot.

Hanney Road resident Gavin Sharrock said: "There are already a number of developments ongoing or recently completed in this area, which are dramatically changing the character of the village.

"I generally have no objections to new developments, but Steventon is a village with a lot of history and character that is quickly being eroded."

Mr Sharrock added: "The local school doesn't have enough places now, let alone before more houses are built."

The development is to consist of 18 affordable and 26 open market dwellings in a field near Stonebridge Road.

A range of one to five bedroom properties are to be built, including two one bedroom apartments and 15 two bed houses.

An application was submitted by developers Linden Homes Thames Valley in August last year, and the council requested a £600,000 contribution to the local community.

This is set to include £68,000 for a new village sports hall and £7,000 for football pitches.

Steventon Parish Council's clerk, Angela Einon, submitted a letter of objection to Vale on the parish council's behalf.

It said: "This is over development. Villages should retain their character and have sufficient infrastructure.

"Plans already passed are overwhelming the infrastructure, drainage, sewage, school places, traffic, none are able to cope."

Linden Homes planning manager Tom Smailes said: "We are pleased that councillors have approved our planning application.

"Our project team has worked hard to create a high quality, sympathetic development."

Flat plans for former priory site go in

PLANS to redevelop a former care home and council office have been submitted.

Cherwell District Council's housing and regeneration department want to build 11-self-contained one and two-bedroom flats for adults with physical and learning disabilities and autism, in Old Place Yard, Bicester.

The flats would be single storey and the site would include private gardens and 13-car parking spaces and a bus space. They would also have solar panels on the roofs.

Twenty-one jobs would be created at the site.

Care home St Edburg's House and the county council's social services were previously based at the site.

The site, which is just over an acre, forms part of the former 12th Century Bicester Priory. A dovecote, within the site, would be maintained as a public asset and would remain accessible for community use, the district council said.

A planning report said because the site is deemed in a flood zone, the buildings would be raised above any predicted flood level "to provide additional protection to the development".

At earlier consultations over the plans current residents raised concerns about parking. The application said it is likely a form of residents only parking would be implemented.

• Former Care Home

A report by consultants Maber Architects said: "It will provide beneficial accommodation in a highly sustainable location within walking distance of local amenities and services.

"The design and layout of the scheme has responded positively to the character and pattern of the development in the local area and to an established principle of good design and access.

"It is considered that, as such, the scheme will positively enhance rather than detract from the character of the area whilst respecting other planning policy requirements."

Bicester Library's site, which is also based in Old Place Yard and is due to relocate to the town centre this spring, is not included in the current plans for the site.

A date has not yet been set for the plans to be decided.

New music festival lands Duran Duran

OXFORD'S new summer festival has been served a new slice of 80s pop after it was announced that Duran Duran are set to joint-headline Common People this May.

The new festival, which takes places from May 28 to 29 in Oxford's South Park will see fans go hungry like the wolf as the Birmingham stars headline the Saturday night bill in front of an anticipated 25,000 people.

The star-studded line up, which features rockers Primal Scream headlining the Sunday night also added British dance vocalist Katy B to the list of acts.

Common People's head organiser Rob da Bank said: "With our beautiful South Park location in Oxford, overlooking the dreaming spires, we're now putting the cherry on top with the news that Duran Duran will be headlining.

"Icons of the last four decades, the boys are still churning out hits and I'm also delighted to announce Katy B will be joining the party. See you at the fields."

Duran Duran bassist John Taylor said: "We are very honoured to be a part of this year's Common People festival.

"It's going to be a fantastic weekend! See you all there."

Katy B had previously been scheduled to play in 2014's OxfordOxford festival which was cancelled due to poor ticket sales.

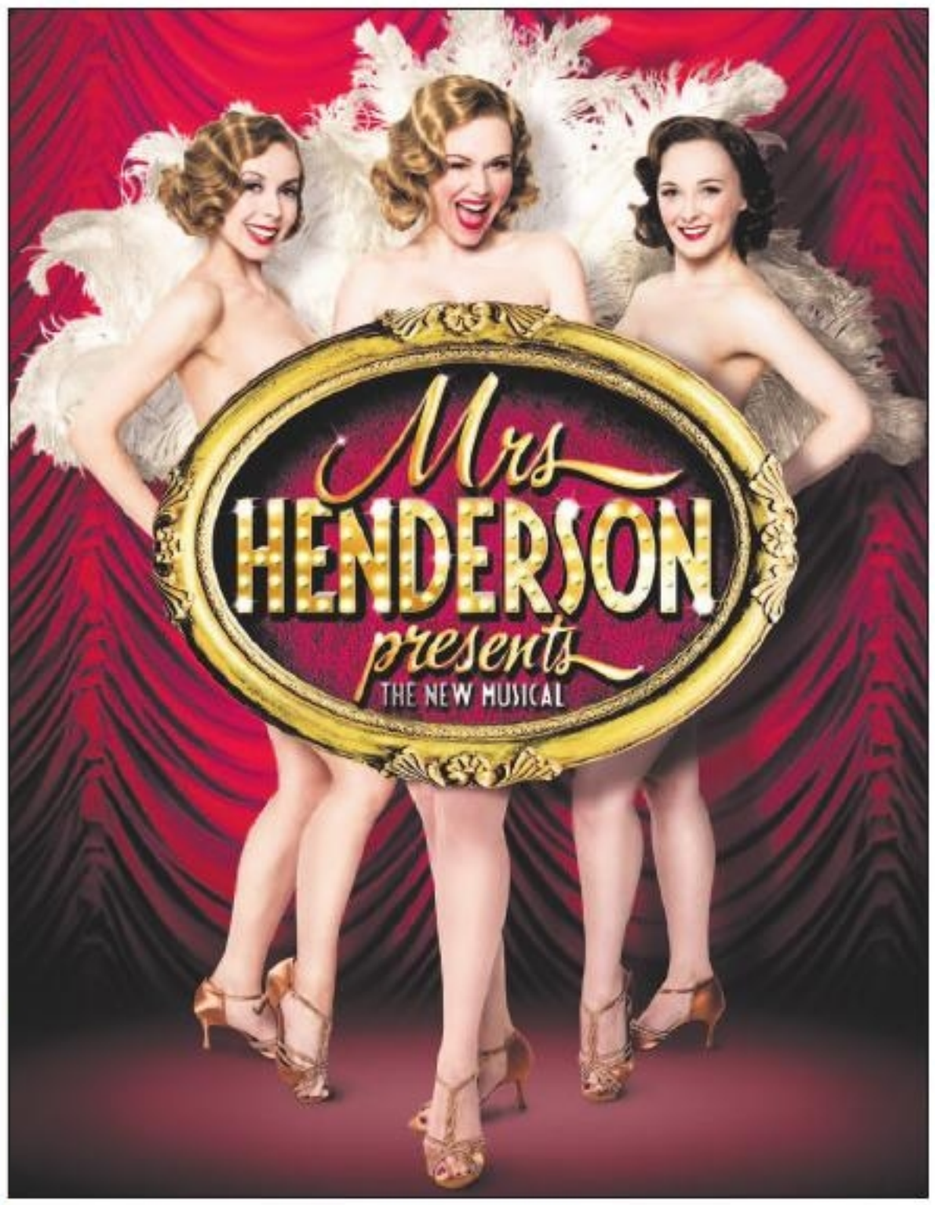
WIN tickets to see Mrs Henderson Presents



DON'T miss MRS HENDERSON PRESENTS, the hilarious, brand-new, five-star musical based on the much loved film that starred Dame Judi Dench and Bob Hoskins, as it makes its West End debut in February 2016 having left critics in raptures at the Theatre Royal Bath.

It's London, 1937, and recently widowed eccentric, Laura Henderson, is looking for a way of spending her time and money. After acquiring and renovating the Windmill Theatre, she hires feisty impresario Vivian Van Damm to present a bill of non-stop variety acts. But as war looms something more is required to boost morale and box office... Mrs Henderson comes up with the idea of The Windmill Girls - glamorous young women posing as nude statues - and audiences flock!

With book and direction by the Tony Award-winning Terry Johnson (La Cage Aux Folles), choreography by Andrew Wright (Singin' in the Rain, Guys and Dolls), lyrics by the multi-award-winning Don Black (Sunset Boulevard) and music by George Fenton and Simon Chamberlain, this glorious and heartwarming new production stars Olivier-winner Tracie Bennett (Les Misérables, End of the Rainbow, ITV's Coronation Street), Olivier-nominated Ian Bartholomew (Into the Woods) and Olivier-nominated Emma Williams (Chitty Chitty Bang Bang).

Closing date: Friday, February 19th

Jane Austin with a twist

What will come to the Cornerstone Arts Centre stage on Saturday is something a bit different - an on-the-spot comedy in which performers feed off the audience to act out amusing scenarios in the style of Jane Austen.

And prepare to laugh. At what jests? Both actors and audience can't be sure until the night, but laugh you will.

'Austentatious – An Improvised Jane Austen Novel' is in town for one night, made up of seven actors.

"You don't need to have read any Austen to enjoy the show," actor Graham Dickson said.

"The show takes place in the world of Jane Austen but in-depth knowledge is not required."

Actress Cariad Lloyd added:

By James Richings

"Every show is completely different, so we can't tell you what will happen but be assured our dear audiences can expect bonnets, breeches and of course - much swooning."

They will be joined by Joseph Morpurgo, Rachel Parris, Charlotte Gittins, Amy Cooke-Hodgson and Andrew Hunter Murray.

Previous on-the-night show titles have included 'Incense and Insensibility', 'Man-Filled Park', 'Lust and Frigidity', 'Strictly Come Darcy', and 'Me Tarzan, You Jane Austen'.

It had two sell-out years in 2014 and 2015 at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and in 2014 won a live comedy UK Chortle Award for the best 'Character, improve or sketch act'.

"After several hundred shows, our nerves are pretty battle-hardened, but there's still a visceral thrill of anticipation every night, as a title's plucked entirely at random from a hatful of audience suggestions," Charlotte said.

"We're all actors as well as comedians, so we perform in a wide variety of shows, both improvised and scripted, with casts ranging from one person to large ensembles.

"In many ways, improvisation is the perfect counterpoint to solo work.

"When you script a one-person show, you relentlessly hone individual material until your delivery's razor-sharp, whereas, in improv, the real art is to make everybody else on stage look good.

"They both require a lot of skill and hard graft but, if you can get them right, they're intensely satisfying."

It starts at 7.30pm and costs £15 or £13.50 for concessions.

Rattigan production's first Oxford showing

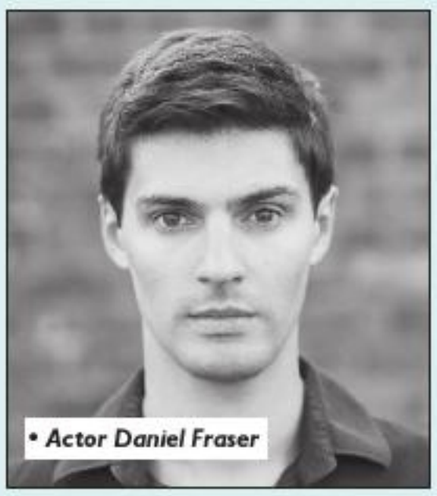
ONE of British dramatist Terence Rattigan's most famous plays is being shown in Oxford until Saturday, February 6.

'Flare Path' was written in 1941 and focuses on a love triangle between London actress Patricia Graham, whose ex-lover turns up at the hotel she is staying in with her new husband.

Actor Daniel Fraser plays the husband, Teddy Graham, a young Flight Lieutenant in the RAF.

He said: "'Flare Path' is one of Rattigan's best, as it is a mixture of light comedy and deeply moving drama.

"Plus, this is the production's first time in Oxford and it is also my first time performing at the Playhouse, so it's doubly exciting."



• Actor Daniel Fraser

It was rejected twice in the 40s because theatres thought people would not want to see a play about the war, but it was taken up by theatrical producer Binkie Beaumont.

But it became a national success after it premiered in August 1942, running for 18 months showing 679 performances. Then Prime Minister Winston Churchill called it a 'masterpiece' after watching the show and added: "I was very moved."

However, the play disappeared from the public eye for 68 years until theatrical director Trevor Nunn revived it in 2011.

"One of the things that interested me most about the play is how it evokes such a strong sense of what things were like during the war," Daniel said.

"Over the last few weeks we've all been researching as much as we can about what it would have been like being involved in the war effort, in order to make it as believable as possible for our audiences."

He added: "Seeing how people react differently to the piece in different regions is fascinating, and means that every night is a new experience."

Tickets cost £11.50 to £27.

The comeback of the clockwork music box

MUSICIAN Luke Daniels will be giving his audience a musical history lesson at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot on Friday, February 5.

The folk singer-songwriter will be performing tracks from his album, 'Revolve and Rotate' on an instrument first invented 140 years ago.

"It is going to be great to go to Didcot and share the work I have been doing with my polyphone machine, a 19th century clockwork music box," he told the Guardian.

"I think the audience will find the instrument very interesting, which is no different to someone seeing the instrument for the first time 140 years ago - no-one would of seen an instrument like this in the public before."

The full-time musician for the last 23 years has strayed to a different side of the music industry over the last two years, concentrating on writing his own songs.

However it's live music, Luke reminded, that is a musicians 'bread and butter'.

"I think one of the best things about being a musician is that everyday is different as you don't have a set routine like most jobs, but it can be hard sometimes," he said.

"The lack of structure means that you constantly have to think about everything such as developing yourself into a better musician and you need to find new ways to make yourself interesting to your audience.

• Luke Daniels

"I really can't stress enough that people need to go and watch live shows.

"People usually have a great time when they go to live shows, and they usually leave with some sort of great experience or a memory to look back on."

Tickets cost £5 to £11 and the gig starts at 7pm.

'Who Do I Think I Am?' Comedy style

COMEDIAN, broadcaster, newspaper columnist and author Mark Steel will be bringing his own brand of humour to the Chipping Norton Theatre on Friday, February 10.

By James Richings

The 55-year-old visits the Market Place theatre as part of his nationwide 'Who Do I Think I Am' tour.

The show about family and backgrounds will see the comic tackle topics including how he was adopted as a child, how his childhood and teenage years shaped him the way he is, and how he now has a great relationship with his own teenage children.

But, he jokingly dismissed the suggestion that his children's interests in the entertainment world had come from their father.

"With my son, whether it's something genetic which means his brain is hardwired in a particular way, or whether it's because he's been around comics all his life and can easily imagine a career in the stand-up comedy, who knows?" Mark said.

"For many people, comedy would be an impossible dream, but for him it was a perfectly normal career option.

"With my daughter, she is a very good actress.

"She was in a musical at school recently and she was brilliant.

> Every time I do a bit more research, it just keeps getting more absurd

"I genuinely mean that, but I'm not going to push her in any direction."

Adopted at just 10 days old in 1960, Mark has always known that he was given up as an infant and had no interest in discovering who his real parents were until he became a dad to Elliot 19 years ago.

After much research, the comic discovered his biological mum and dad were young when they had him.

"People often say, 'Oh you're so brave', And I reply back with 'No, it's not brave. Doing it in Raqqa would be brave'," Mark joked.

"The resolution of the story is that it is all turned out OK – it doesn't have to be a big emotional song and dance.

"Every time I do a bit more research, it just keeps getting more absurd, like a badly written novel by Jeffrey Archer.

"People would be entitled to say, 'Come on mate, you're just making this up', because it seems so far-fetched.

"I promise you though that every word is true – I haven't even slightly exaggerated a detail for comic effect."

His tour was premiered at last year's Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

The show starts at 7.45pm and tickets cost £16.50.

SONG OF THE SEA
From the creators of Academy Award nominated The Secret of Kells, comes a breathtakingly hand-drawn masterpiece. Based on the Irish legend of the Selkies, Song of the Sea tells the story of the last seal-child, Saoirse, and her brother Ben, who go on an epic journey to save the world of magic and in doing so, discover secrets of their past. Pursued by the owl witch, Macha, and a host of ancient and mythical creatures, Saoirse and Ben race against time to awaken Saoirse's powers and keep the spirit world from disappearing forever. As enthralling for adults as for children, the film is a wonder of magical storytelling and visual splendour destined to become a classic.

Has Ford ripped up the rulebook?

FORD is claiming to have 'ripped up the rulebook' with their new Ford Focus RS, by creating a fun all-wheel drive hatchback.

By James Richings

It is the first Ford RS model to have selectable drive modes and includes an industry-first of drift mode and launch control options.

With an engineered 350 PS version of Ford's 2.3-litre EcoBoost engine, the hatchback can do 0-62mph in 4.7 seconds and has a top speed of 165mph.

"The all-new Focus RS is a serious machine with high-performance technology and innovative engineering that sets new benchmarks for driving exhilaration on the road and track," said group vice president of global product development at Ford Motor Company, Raj Nair.

"It's a great example of our passion for innovation through performance and creating vehicles that make people's hearts pound."

The Ford all-wheel-drive system is based on twin electronically controlled clutch packs on each side of the rear-drive unit.

These manage the car's front-to-rear torque split, and can control the side-to-side torque distribution at the rear axle, improving handling and cornering.

The control unit in the rear drive unit continuously varies the front-to-rear and side-to-side torque distribution to suit the driving situation. A maximum of 70 per cent of the drive torque can be diverted to the rear axle and up to 100 per cent of the available torque at the rear axle can be sent to each rear wheel.

And the rear drive unit can switch drive from one side to the other in 0.06 seconds.

The all-wheel drive system also helps the driver use the best speeds while approaching and leaving bends, because the car automatically reduces speeds while coming up to a corner, and naturally accelerating automatically out of a bend.

Director of Global Ford Performance, Dave Pericak, said: "This all-wheel drive system is breakthrough technology as it is capable of delivering supreme cornering and handling at the limit."

"We have ripped up the rulebook which says all-wheel drive hatchbacks cannot be fun to drive, and have created a car which will surprise and reward."

FULL AND PART-TIME COACH DRIVERS REQUIRED

Tappins Coaches has undergone a major transformation over the last 3 years. Our fleet replacement programme is almost complete, with a further 24 new vehicles currently in the course of delivery As a result we are looking to strengthen our Didcot-based driving team.

We are looking for experienced, smart, flexible, and customer-focused professionals. Our work includes home-to-school transport, rail replacement, express service, corporate charter and multi-day touring, both in the UK and mainland Europe. The amount of stage carriage work currently undertaken is very small, so applicants from that background will need to demonstrate a clear desire and ability to quickly adapt.

The current rate of pay (including merit bonus) is £12.00 per hour, and you will be entitled to 34 days annual leave. All full-time drivers are guaranteed 160 hours per 4-weekly pay period.

If you have other commitments which mean you are unable to work on a full-time basis, we have a large volume of home-to-school, evening and weekend work which we could offer you on a part-time or casual basis.

Please contact us on: 01235 519412 or email your details to: simon@tappins.co.uk

Oxfordshire Guardian & Observer Group

are looking to fill the following vacancies

Multimedia Sales People

- Are you confident and outgoing?
- Do you love speaking to people both over the phone and face to face?
- Can you build and maintain rapports with clients?
- Can you think outside the box?
- Are you target driven and money motivated?
- Are you a team player?

Taylor Newspapers are currently looking for talented sales people to join their experienced advertising sales team so if you can tick all the above boxes, we would love to hear from you.

Sales Administrator

£15,000 pa + OTE Commission

We are looking for a full time administrator to prepare copy for publication for our newspapers at our offices in Didcot.
You will need to be computer literate, a team player with good communication skills and have a sense of urgency about you.
No experience is required as training will be given and this role could develop into that of an Account Manager dealing with and earning commission from your own customer base.
A great opportunity for someone wishing to enter the media business.

If you think you have got what it takes to succeed please email your CV to julian@taylornewspapers.co.uk or call him on 01235 516926 for an informal chat.

Appleton: "We'll go for the win at Wembley!"

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United manager Michael Appleton paid tribute to U's fans as his side booked a dream Wembley date in their clash with Millwall at the Kassam Stadium on Tuesday night.

The U's bested the Lions in a 2-1 aggregate scoreline despite losing the second leg 1-0 thanks to a Lee Gregory second half goal.

The result has sealed Oxford's passage to the hallowed Wembley turf for the first time in six years where they will take on either Barnsley or Fleetwood Town in the final on April 3.

Appleton expressed his delight after the game, stating: "This is probably the best defeat I've had in my life.

"I am absolutely chuffed to bits and delighted for everyone associated with Oxford United. The staff, the players and the fans.

"When they scored their goal, this place went electric. The fans were absolutely superb."

The game was fast, tense and the U's fans roared to their side to the end, with the Yellow Army heading to Wembley six years after their Conference play-off final success.

Appleton added: "We'll make a day of it for the fans but make no mistake we will go out to win. It's such a big thing getting there and once you are there you have got to enjoy it, so we won't let anyone take that from us."

He said: "I just feel overwhelmed. It really is an amazing feeling. We're going to Wembley and we're over the moon.

"The game's not important to us now, we've got there, the boys have done it and I couldn't be more happy."

Blues hit back with big win

WITNEY RFC returned to winning ways in a 23-8 win over Maidenhead at Hailey Road on Saturday.. The Blues secured the first points on the board in eleven minutes with Henry Lamb converting a penalty.

The early score pushed Witney on and Ben Fisk managed to wriggle some space in a ruck before supplying flanker Carl Campbell to cross over the line to make it 8-0.

Maidenhead slowly came to life and full back Tom Finney kicked a penalty a few minutes later before a controlled scrum from the home side led to winger Rhys Morgan darting over the line to make it 13-3.

The game was then put to bed as Lamb started a ruck with Witney in possession and Scott Mortimer proceeded to barrel his way through several tackles to touch down beneath the posts as Lamb kicked the conversion true.

The result sees Witney come back from their 18-10 loss to Towcestrians the previous weekend.

Greens make history in Grimsby

KIDLINGTON FC will either play Ipswich Wanderers or Bowers & Pitsea in the FA Vase quarter finals after besting Cleethorpes Town 2-1 on Saturday.

The Greens got themselves into the final eight in superb fashion after they dominated their Grimsby-based opponents.

It was only in the seventh minute when the Greens got the opener as Tommy Castle was freed into space by Eric Odhiambo and despite Town 'keeper Miles Fenty closing him down, the midfielder managed to find the net.

Henry Owen then prevented a certain equaliser, sliding in to prevent Town's Marc Cooper from scoring after he rounded Kidlington 'keeper Sam Warrell.

Cleethorpes' Luke Mascall then struck Kidlington's far post with the home side pushing to find an equaliser.

Kidlington managed to extend their lead on the cusp of half time with Lewis Coyle taking the ball from a throw in, turning and beating his marker and then smashing home an effort.

The away side then held on to the lead as Cleethorpe's Brody Robertson took advantage of a defensive mishap and slotted the ball past Warrell.

Kidlington held off the onslaught from the Northerners to pocket the win, with the travelling fans celebrating joyously with the players at the full time whistle as the quarter finals is the furthest the Greens have gone in the competition.

They will play their quarter-final tie on Saturday, February 20.

Oxford book Wembley place for the JPT final

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United booked their date with destiny at Wembley going through to the Johnstone's Paint Trophy final 2-1 on aggregate despite losing 1-0 to Millwall at the Kassam Stadium on Tuesday night.

A tense first-half saw both sides carve out decent opportunities but the game really burst to life in the second half with Lee Gregory putting the Lions ahead before Mark Beevers was sent off for the away side.

The first half passed without any of the sides really working a chance to get the ball in the net with Kemar Roofe netting wide twice.

On 50 minutes came a huge chance for United as a perfect through ball from Lundstram to O'Dowda was then crossed in for Danny Hylton.

But the number ten's header proved to be straight at Archer and then Millwall struck a blow.

Flimsy defending at the back allowed the Lions to play in Gregory, who, after turning in the area, side footed the ball past Buchel to give the visitors the lead.

United were shaken by the goal and Beevers then knocked an effort just over the bar from outside the area.

The game then turned Oxford's way with Mark Beevers given a second yellow for bringing down Hylton, with the latter as the last man.

The resulting free-kick saw an excellent effort by O'Dowda palmed away by Archer out for a corner kick and Roofe's corner then led to MacDonald turning a header just wide of the post.

Hearts then leapt out of mouths in the 69th minute when Roofe was fed one-on-one with Archer in the area after a delightful flick from Sercombe, but he lost control just as he was about to unleash the shot.

Tricky draw

HOCKEY: Oxford Hockey Club's Ladies' firsts came from 2-0 down to grab a 2-2 draw with Marlow's firsts in the South League Division 2 on Saturday.

Catherine Reaney and Kim Haynes got the goals for Oxford in what was a tightly contested match.

The men's firsts conceded a last minute goal in their contest with Newbury & Thatcham as the score ended up 2-2 with Dan Bleach and Matt McKeown grabbing Oxford's goals.

Cup round-up

FOOTBALL: Oxford City knocked defending champions Banbury United out of the Oxfordshire Senior Cup on Tuesday night with a 1-0 win.

Kaylem Patterson grabbed Oxford's goal in the second half to grab the win for the side that puts them into the semi-finals of the competition.

New signing

'Tino' is originally from Northampton and has gained experience through the Sheffield Eagles reserves whilst at Hallam University.

Head coach Tim Rumford said: "He's created a good impression upon us and he will be pushing for a regular first team spot."

Millers beaten by last minute Marlow winner

NORTH Leigh fell prey to a last minute goal in an exciting contest at Marlow on Tuesday night with the home side taking home all three points in a 3-2 win.

The Millers headed into the match on the back of a 3-1 away win at Yate Town on Saturday which had lifted them back in to the play-off places, however, Mark Gee's side were unable to hold off The Blues despite coming back from 2-0 behind.

Leigh got off to a poor start after Jordace Holder-Spooner executed a fine finish for the home side with only three minutes on the clock.

The Millers managed to lift their heads back up and hit back strongly against the Blues but were then dealt another blow on 24 minutes when Marlow extended their lead.

Jordan Brown weaved himself to a good position and knocked in the home side's second, giving the Millers a big task to get back in the game.

The Millers replied with an effort just on the half hour mark as Steve Davies tapped the ball in before Stuart Hole equalised for the Millers in the 69th minute.

However, the Millers couldn't hold on for the point as Samuel Bangura found the net in added time to secure the win for the Buckinghamshire-based side.

City Stars blast thirteen past lowly Devils

ALAN Green and Ondrej Pekarik ran the show for Oxford City Stars at Oxpens Road on Sunday as they hammered bottom-of-the-table Cardiff Devils 13-0.

Both Green and Pekarik netted a hattrick for the stars with the latter grabbing two assists in the evening showdown.

The result was seen as a big boost to the Stars, having been beaten 5-1 by the Invicta Dynamos the previous evening.

Pekarik had put Oxford in front over the Devils in the first minute before Nick Oliver and Green made it three.

Into the second period, the Stars continued their dominance with Ben Ealey-Newman sliding the ball into the net and Mike Whillock then skated the length of the ice to score.

Pekarik then added an eighth in the closing minutes before Green netted his second two minutes into the third period.

Boris Ruzicka made it double figures firing home from a tight angle with Josh Florey also getting in on the action.

The scoring of the contest was then over after Green completed his hattrick right before Oliver added his second of the day, tapping home a Jake Florey shot to make it 13.

U's make fourth signing

OXFORD United Women have made their fourth signing this year as Jess Frampton joined the U's from Portsmouth Ladies on Tuesday.

With just a month left until United start the new season, manager Les Taylor has acquired Frampton's signature, after securing Sophie Baker and Ella Franklin-Fraiture to new deals and signing midfielder Lauren Haynes from Aston Villa.

Frampton said upon her arrival: "I couldn't be more happy or excited to be playing in the WSL.

"It's been a long term goal for me and the fact I get to do it with Oxford United is a privilege. I couldn't have done it without the support and foundations from Portsmouth but I will now use this opportunity to develop my game and progress with Oxford."

Taylor said of his new acquisition: "Jess is a player who has been on our radar for a number of months.

"She is the right type of player for us, a team players and a great trainer who sets good examples."

"She can play full back or as a wide midfielder. She has pace, good technical ability and is an athlete, and will be a great addition to the team."

Saints make move to Abingdon's Tilsley Park

• Abingdon's Tilsley Park

TILSLEY PARK will be even busier this year as the Oxford Saints are set to join Oxford RL at playing their games there this year.

The American Football team will join the rugby league side at the Abingdon venue for matches this season following their move from Abingdon Rugby Club.

A brand new 3G pitch is in the process of being installed at the park in Dunmore Road ahead of the new season for both clubs.

Oxford RL announced last week that they were moving from their ground at Iffley Road to play home games at the park.

The Saints will seek to take advantage of the availability of a PA box and speaker system at the ground to bump the squad up on match day.

Saints' chairman Andrew Peart said: "This announcement is a key milestone in the continuing growth of American Football in Oxford."

Oxford begin their campaign this Spring.

Goalless affair as Diddy visit Wantage

DIDCOT Town's player-manager says the squad is not looking at the possibility of the play-off spaces this season despite a recent upturn in results.

The Diddy entered 2016 with three consecutive wins but a recent run of two draws, including Tuesday night's goalless thriller at Wantage, has seen their recent surge up the table dented.

Andy Ballard took the helm of Didcot in the wake of the shock departures of Ian Concannon and Jamie Heapy in December and the midfielder has brought calm to the storm at the Loop Meadow.

He told the Guardian: "I think the squad is a lot more settled than it used to be and the boys are in good spirits.

"However, getting in to the play-off spots is not something we're targeting right now. We've got to just take it as it comes and not expect too much.

"If in a month's time we find ourselves in a better position then things will change but right now we're just taking it game by game."

Didcot lie in ninth, nine points off North Leigh who occupy the last play-off spot with 14 games left to play and 42 points up for grabs.

Didcot saw plenty of opportunities to snatch a win in the game with Adam Learoyd heading wide from close range.

Ballard paid tribute to Wantage, who are currently immersed in a relegation battle in the league.

He added: "Full credit goes to Wantage as they made things very difficult for us at Alfredian Park.

"They were very good, fired up and it just seemed one of those games where form goes out the window and with the derby feel to it, it was always going to be difficult."

Didcot remain unbeaten in 2016 whilst Wantage have turned a corner after Stuart Cattell's side grabbed a win over Marlow on Saturday and now remain in 20th on 21 points, four points above the drop zone.
